Private parties such as attorneys and other inmates may not be sued under Section 1983. In addition, liability under Section 1983 requires personal action by the defendant that caused you harm. Normally, the Director of the Department of Corrections, wardens, and sheriffs are not liable under Section 1983 when a claim against them rests solely on the fact that they supervise persons who may have violated your rights. On May 4th 2011 I was arrested by the Virginia Beach police. After initial contact between the officer's and myself (Jeremy Joseph Ross) a short foot chase ensued. I was then shot by a taser gun by officer Lindemeyer that's when I immediately layed myself down face first. While I was laying there motionless officer Schultz approached me and advised me to open my hands. I could not open my hands because they were locked shut from the electricity which was still Pulsing through my body from the taser. Officer Schultz then Manually opened my hand's, Pulled my hand's down behind my back and cuffed me. At that point officer Schultz Jumped on me with all his weight coming down on me with his knee's breaking my collarbone and Cracking several of my ribs. He did this Purposely out of spite while I lay there face down and handcuffed. By inflicting these injuries on me Vengefully I believe my 4th Ammendment Right's were violated. This occurred in the 400 block of S. military Highway at the wayside motor inn in VA. Beach Virginia.
